7th Winter Course on International Maritime Law

Ref. No. ISIL/Off/2017/10 26th December to 30 December 2017

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959 at the initiative of Shri V. K. Krishna Menon and was inaugurated in the same year by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India, with the objective to "foster nationwide the study and development of International Law and to encourage the comparative study of the application of International Law in other States". The ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, which has attained a high standard and is held in high esteem the world over. The ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. It organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. Finally, and equally important, it conducts and promotes independent research on issues of International Law. The teaching wing of the ISIL- the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy, runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law.

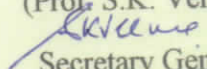

The ISIL organises every year a Winter Course in international law to bring to you the current developments and their importance.

We are pleased to announce that the ISIL 7th Winter Course on International Maritime Law will commence from Tuesday, 26th December 2017 to Saturday, 30th December 2017. The topics will relate to: Introduction to Maritime Law, International Maritime Organisation and India, Law of the Sea, Carriage of Goods by Sea, Law of Marine Insurance, Marine Safety and Security, Marine Environment, Marine Pollution, Admiralty Jurisdiction and Maritime Claims, Coastal Regulation Zone, Maritime Labour Law, Law of Marine Collision, Ships in distress at sea etc.

The Society will endeavour to make available the best expertise available in the respective fields as course instructors, which would include noted academicians, governmental, non-governmental and UN officials etc. The course will comprise classroom lectures, discussion, counseling and library consultation, from 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. The course fee would be Rs. 3,000/- for students and Rs. 3,500/- for teachers and lawyers. Maximum 300 participants can be admitted on the basis of first-cum-first serve. Demand drafts shall be drawn in favour of the Indian Society of International Law. Online registration is also placed at ISIL website. At the end of the course a certificate of attendance will be given to all the participants.

We hope you /your institution will make use of this opportunity of attending the winter course.
