Two-day Workshop on 'New Vistas of Sports Law: Challenges and Opportunities'

9-10 September 2017

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959 at the initiative of Shri V. K. Krishna Menon and was inaugurated in the same year by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India, with the objective to "foster nation-wide the study and development of International Law and to encourage the comparative study of the application of International Law in other States". The ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, which has attained a high standard and is held in high esteem the world over. The ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. It organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. Finally, and equally important, it conducts and promotes independent research on issues of International Law. The teaching wing of the ISIL- the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy - runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law.

We are pleased to announce that the ISIL and Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, University of Delhi are jointly organizing a Two day Workshop on 'New Vistas of Sports Law: Challenges and Opportunities' on 9-10 September 2017. The topics will relate to: Concept and Evolution of Sports, Introduction to Sports Law, Governance of Sports, IP issues in Sports, Role of Regulatory Authorities, Anti-Doping Laws, ADR etc.

The organizers will endeavor to make available the best expertise in respective fields as course instructors, which would include noted academicians, experts from reputed law firms etc.

The workshop will comprise of classroom lectures, discussions, interactive sessions, counseling and library consultation from 10 am to 5 pm on 9-10 September 2017. The course fee would be Rs. 2500/-. Participants will be admitted on the basis of first-cum-first serve. Demand drafts shall be drawn in the favour of the Indian Society of International Law. Online registration is also placed at ISIL Website. At the end of the workshop, a certificate of attendance will be given to all the participants.

We hope you/your institution will make use of this opportunity of attending the workshop.
