16 January 2007

Ref. No ~

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Sub: 36th Annual Conference of the Indian Society of International Law, 24-25
March 2007

Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959 at the initiative of Shri V.K. Krishna Menon and inaugurated the same year by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India. ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, and is held in high esteem the world over. ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. ISIL organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. The teaching wing of ISIL-the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy, runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law. It also organizes every year a Summer Course in International Law for students and a UGC Refresher programme in International Law for Law teachers.

ISIL has decided to hold its 36th Annual Conference on two themes namely, (1) Contemporary Challenges to International Law and (2) Environmental Law: International and National Perspectives, on 24-25 March 2007 at ISIL premises. Law teachers, policy makers, government officers, lawyers and students are invited to participate in this Conference. We would be grateful if you kindly let us know the teachers/students from your department/college who are likely to participate in the Annual Conference. Those who are interested to participate and present a paper in this Conference can do so by intimating us before 28th February 2007.

There is no registration fee, however, participants have to bear their travel and hotel expenditure. ISIL will assist in arranging accommodation for the outstation participants, if so desired.

Yours sincerely,

Rahmatullah Khan
Secretary- General
