Two-day Workshop on Entertainment Laws: International and National Perspectives (online classes)

19 -20 March 2022

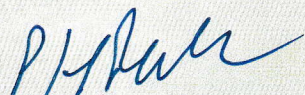

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959 at the initiative of Shri V. K. Krishna Menon and was inaugurated in the same year by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India, with the objective to "foster nation-wide the study and development of International Law and to encourage the comparative study of the application of International Law in other States". The ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, which has attained a high standard and is held in high esteem the world over. The ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. It organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. Finally, and equally important, it conducts and promotes independent research on issues of International Law. The teaching wing of the ISIL- the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy - runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law.

We are pleased to announce that the ISIL is organizing a Two-day Workshop on Entertainment Laws: International and National Perspectives on 19-20 March 2022. The classes will be conducted online. The topics will relate to: Legal Regimes Regulating Entertainment Sector, Role of IP Law in the Entertainment Sector, Law and Music, Artist Agreements, Copyright Societies, Dispute Resolution under the Entertainment Sector, Technology & Entertainment Industry etc.

The organizers will endeavour to make available the best expertise in respective fields as course instructors, which would include noted academicians, industry experts from reputed law firms etc.

The course will comprise of online lectures, discussions, interactive sessions, from 10 am to 4 pm on 19-20 March 2022. The course fee will be Rs. 800/- for students and Rs. 900/- for teachers, lawyers and other professionals. Participants will be admitted on the basis of first-cum-first serve. Demand drafts shall be drawn in the favour of the Indian Society of International Law. Online registration is also placed at ISIL Website. At the end of the course, a certificate of attendance will be given to all the participants.

We hope you/your institution will make use of this opportunity of attending the workshop.
