Two-day Seminar on the Human Rights Day Celebration, 9-10 December 2023

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) is organizing a two days seminar to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) on 9 and 10 December 2023 at ISIL premises. The following themes are identified: UDHR Background and History; Reservation to Human Rights Treaties and State Practice; Education Human Rights; Reporting Obligations; Right to Development; Human Rights in National and International Courts; and Technology and Human Rights.

Law teachers, policy makers, government officers, lawyers and students are invited to participate in this Seminar. We would be grateful if you kindly encourage legal officers/teachers/students of your department/college to participate in the Seminar. Those who wish to participate and present a paper in this Seminar should send their papers at the earliest for consideration.

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959. ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, which is held in high esteem the world over. ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. ISIL organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. The teaching wing of ISIL, the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy, runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law. It also organizes every year a Summer Course in International Law for students.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Narinder Singh)
